

Excellence. Integrity. Balance.

Clients get it all at our full-service civil firm.

Six attorneys from Hasselberg, Rock, Bell & Kuppler LLP have been recognized by their peers as Leading Lawyers in Illinois in Commercial Litigation, Personal Injury Law, Alternate Dispute Resolution Law (Commercial & Personal Injury), Construction Law, Governmental & Municipal Law, Closely & Privately Held Business Law, Individual Tax Law, Trust, Will & Estate Planning Law, Real Estate Law (Commercial & Residential), Employment Law (Employee), and Military Law. They exemplify the talent of all our attorneys. HRBK has a reputation for exceptional client service. Our attorneys are experienced and accessible, and our services are as cost-effective as they are comprehensive.

Over the years, lawyers with affiliations at other firms combined their talents and diverse practices at HRBK, a full-service civil law firm. HRBK provides high quality legal services to businesses and individuals in central Illinois and in courts throughout the state.

HRBK is experienced in the formation, maintenance, merger and sale of business enterprises, from proprietorships and partnerships to limited liability companies and corporations. Our trust and estate planning attorneys advise clients in all phases of elder law, prepare wills and trust agreements, provide counsel on estate and income tax issues, and assist in the administration of estate assets.

Our litigation attorneys have trial and appellate experience in wide-ranging commercial, professional, corporate, contract, construction, employment, real estate, eminent domain, landlord-tenant, debtor-creditor and probate disputes. We handle personal injury cases, provide arbitration and mediation services in tort and commercial cases, and handle all aspects of family law.

HRBK attorneys have long represented municipalities and other public entities and are often selected as special litigation counsel to handle public entity disputes. We also have extensive experience in commercial and residential development law, annexation, zoning, financing, and other real estate matters.

HRBK is proud of our dedication to client service and also our dedication to public service. Four of our attorneys have received special recognition for their pro bono or public service efforts.
